ANY CEMETERY, U.S.A. (P)—Dialogue under the headstones: George (vintage '18): Well, here it is another Memorial Day. Wonder who'll come? Jim (vintage '17): Who cares? Clem (vintage '64): Not me. I'm not expecting visitors. Charley (vintage '63): Me neither. It's been a long, long long time for both of us. But restful. Joe (vintage '43): I'd like to see my folks again. Frank (vintage '50): I never had no folks—unless you can call an orphan home daddy. But Edith, my girl, she said she'd never forget. But she only came here once to see me. Jim: I had folks once a long time ago, but I ran away young, and wasn't the kind of kid they'd exactly want to remember. An elderly woman came and knelt above George, prayed a few moments, then walked away, her head down. George: Stella! When I kissed her goodbye she said if I didn't come back she'd never marry again. That was 38 years ago. She looks so old and tired and lonely. Does she really think that's the way I wanted it? If I could only have left her a son. Four people, an elderly couple and a young couple, came to Joe's headstone, decked it with flowers, and spoke of him lovingly as they sat down on the grass and opened a picnic lunch. Joe: Mom! Dad! And my kid brother. How big he is! The girl with him must be his wife. Imagine Harry being married. How fast things change up there. A delegation from the Sons of the Confederacy arrived, planted a waving flag (the Stars and Bars), by Clem's grave, listened to a brief speech then departed. Charley: I don't know what happened to the Sons of the Grand Army of the Republic this year, Johnny Reb, but your side remembered you. Clem: Why shouldn't they, Yankee? Who do you think won the war? But it was a mighty terrible short speech. George (musingly): Wars and speeches, speeches and wars. I wonder if we all had it to do over again, whether we'd . . . Jim (testily): Had what to do over again? All I did was to get kicked by a mule in a training camp in Missouri. All my buddies thought it was funny until I keeled over. I never even had a chance to laugh. George: I was crawling through some barbed wire near Chateau-Thierry when a Hun sniper . . . Clem: I was crying for water in a Yankee prison. Officers Elected By Jaycees Here

Dr. Lawrence Burris today is the new president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was elected at Monday night's regular meeting along with the other officers: Richard Willis, first vice president; David Six, second vice president; Ralph Cook, secretary and Dr. William Lawyer, treasurer.

Dr. Lawrence Burris

Dr. Burris will succeed Robert Callison into the presidency. The other outgoing officers are Dick Hankins, first vice president; Dr. Burris second vice president; Dick Willis, secretary and David Six, the treasurer.

Two new directors also were elected. They were Bill Williams and Hal Summers. They take the place of Bob Boyd and Frank Weade. These two and the officers and the immediate past president make up the board of directors.

The new officers will be installed at the July meeting.

ALTHOUGH most of the meeting was taken up with the election, there was time for a report by Williams on the Teen-age Road-e-o, which the Jaycee staged a week ago, a written examination and a driving test on North Main Street.

The winners, a boy, Dale Coil, and a girl, Edna Mae Flemming, both of Washington C. H. are to be presented plaques at a dinner to be given later at a date not yet selected.

David Ogan reported that the comfort station at the park is now nearing completion after a group of Jaycees help put the finishing touches on it last Sunday. The plumbing is now virtually all in place and the water is to be connected in the near future.

The biggest job left to be done is the placing of the concrete steps down from Oakland Avenue and the landscaping, the meeting was told.

Callison also made a report on plans for the Fourth of July celebration the Jaycees are to put on all day at the park on Millikan Avenue. Committees are to be named, he said, before the next meeting and the details will be worked out then.

The Fourth of July celebration is to include an all-day recreation program of games and stunts at the park and be climaxed with a big fireworks display at night.

With only a little more than a month to go, the payment of real estate taxes in Fayette County is lagging.

This was disclosed Tuesday by Treasurer Charles A. Fabb, after a check of the books Monday evening showed $250,258.15 remaining to be paid before the deadline on June 30.

Fabb said that he hoped "the word would get around" so taxes could all be paid before the books are closed to avoid the 10 percent penalty that goes on delinquent taxes automatically under the law.

The present collection period, the second of the year, opened on May 1 and normally would have closed on June 30. However, an extension of time until June 30 was secured when it was apparent that the payments were lagging, Fabb explained.

AT THE START of the year, there was a total of $897,068.57 to be collected. During the first collection period, property owners paid taxes amounting to $634,592.03. This was well over the half of the total that was due at that time, but Fabb explained, many property owners paid the full year tax to bring the total to more than half of the amount due during the first collection period.

That left only $262,416.54 on the books to be paid during the present collection period.

However, since May 1 when the books were opened for the second half collection, only $12,158.39 has been paid.

That leaves $250,258.15 to be paid before the June 30 deadline.

Hearing Set For Boy Who Shot Mother

AKRON, Ohio (P)—A hearing for a 16-year-old boy who told police he shot and killed his mother accidentally will be held early next week before Juvenile Judge Russell Thomas.

John Kenneth Frank was released from the Summit County detention home Monday so he could attend the funeral of his mother in Chicago Thursday.

He told police he was trying to stop a quarrel between his parents when he accidentally discharged a .22 caliber foreign-made automatic pistol. The bullet struck Mrs. Anna E. Fran, 43, in the heart.

The shooting occurred at the Frank home early Sunday after the boy and his parents had attended a dance Saturday night at the Akron Naval Air Station. John said the quarrel between his mother and step-father, Phillip R. Frank, started at the dance. The elder Frank is a chief aviation mechanic stationed at the air base.

Police Capt. Carroll Cutright, who questioned the boy Monday, said, "everything in the case points to accidental shooting."

Assistant Summit County Prosecutor James Barbuto said the boy would return here after the funeral for the hearing before Thomas.

Rev. N. D. Renn, Baptist Pastor Here, Resigns

Action Is Taken At Member Meeting; No Successor Yet

Rev. Norman Renn, who came here as pastor of the First Baptist Church last July, has resigned.

He submitted his resignation, effective July 26, at a congregational meeting following the Sunday service. It was accepted.

Rev. Renn said his plans for the future were indefinite. His resignation was a formal statement, he said, and if any reasons for leaving the pastorate here after a year were given, they were kept within the church membership.

Rev. Renn succeeded Rev. Francis T. McCarty, who resigned after eight years here to accept a pastorate in an eastern Columbus suburb, in the East Community Baptist Church.

Rev. Renn came here from Marion where he was the minister of the Fite Baptist Church.

FOLLOWING the resignation by Rev. Renn, and its acceptance by the membership, it was said his successor will be chosen by a Pulpit Committee. This committee, it was said, has not yet been appointed, but that it will be in the near future.

One of the church officers said, however, that services would be held regularly until a new pastor comes in to take the pulpit.

But, a concert that had been scheduled for next Sunday evening's service has been cancelled, a member of the committee announced Tuesday morning. She said that Jan Thompson, tenor, and Ross Reimuelier, piano, would not come here from Dayton to give the concert here. She did not say whether it would be rescheduled.

The First Baptist Church here is just now getting a building program under way to take care of the church's growing congregation. A tract of land has been acquired on the CCC Highway, just east of Memorial Hospital, and architects have been consulted about plans for the new church building.

Landon Prison Farm Guard Is Getting Better

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—A London Prison Farm guard, stabbed while trying to prevent an escape, is in "good" condition today, a Mount Carmel Hospital aide said.

The guard, Roy Gordon, 35, of Leesburg, received knife wounds in the hands and right side Sunday night while trying to prevent the escape of honor inmate James Esson, a convicted murderer, Supt. R. B. Eckle said.

One of two inmates who walked away about the same time as Esson's escape was arrested in Wilmington Monday. Police identified him as Joseph Ferrall, 46.

John O. Meyers, 38, the other walkaway, and Esson are still at large.

Eckle said Esson, serving a life term for the 1948 robbery slaying of a Cuyahoga County man, tried to take a truck with which Gordon was using to patrol the grounds. When Gordon resisted, he was stabbed, Eckle said.

Stolen Corpse Found Near River

COLUMBUS (P)—The sheet-wrapped corpse of an elderly woman stolen from Ohio State University May 3 has been found along the Olentangy River near here.

Dr. Carl E. Tetrick, deputy coroner, made the identification. Found with the corpse, Dr. Tetrick said, were several items marked "Hamilton Hall."

The theft took place at Hamilton Hall on the OSU campus, where the body had been held for medical research.

Gun Battle Victim in Critical Condition

Deputy Sheriff Steve J. Mohowski of Lorain County, who was shot through the head in a gun battle with police here at 4:20 A. M. Monday, was still in a critical condition in University Hospital, in Columbus Tuesday. Little or no hope was held for his recovery.

Police are holding the .38 calibre police special pistol, just as it was found with two empty shells in it. Each of the bullets allegedly had been fired with intent to wound or kill Patrolman Lang Laytard, who shot it out with Mohowski at the Marathon service station on East Court Street at North Street.

Police are also holding a partly empty bottle of what was at first believed to be Cuban wine; but which later proved to be Cuban rum.

The bottle, taken from Mohowski's car following the shooting, was about half full.

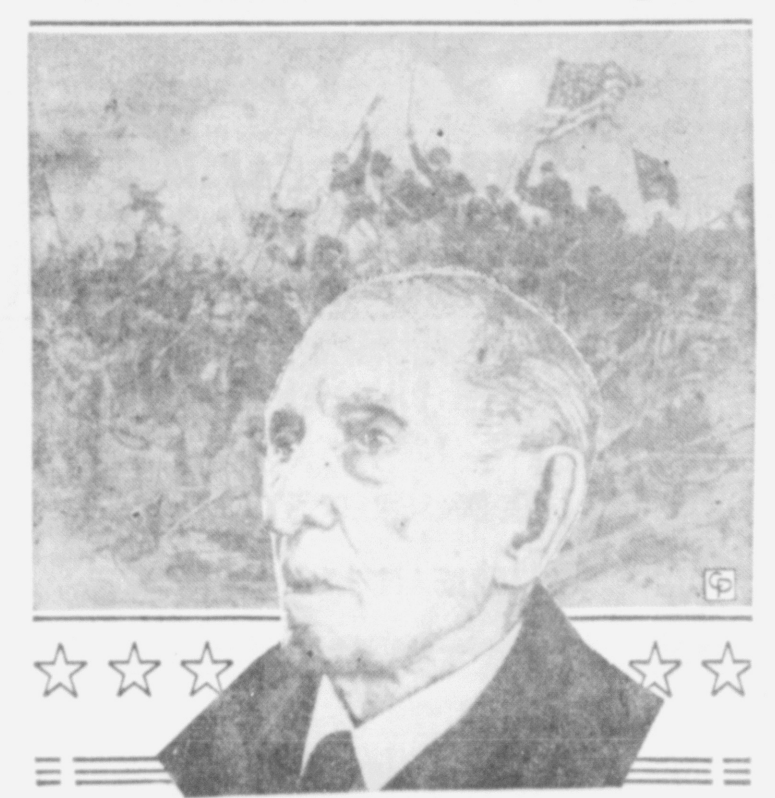

They are also holding 50 extra cartridges found on the seat of his automobile and his luggage.

MOHOSKI was on vacation, in civilian clothes and wore no identification badge. He was carrying a loaded gun with a large supply of extra cartridges. Police said he threatened them with the gun when they reached the scene and then fired a shot at Laytard.

Two other officers, Patrolman Elmer Kelly and Sergeant Walter Marshall, answered the call to the service station with Patrolman Laytard. They joined in the gun battle. Sgt. Marshall from behind a gasoline pump and Patrolman Kelly from behind the police cruiser. It also developed that the first

Boys in Blue and Gray Will Never Meet Again

Albert Woolson. In background Civil war battle scene.

By RAYMOND WILCOVE (Central Press Association) WASHINGTON — Three years ago a Union and a Confederate soldier expressed the hope that the Blue and the Gray could get together again.

The two were Albert Woolson, then 106, and John Salling, who was 105. They still are alive, but they will not have their wish.

Never again will the Blue and the Gray meet. Members of the House rules committee met the other day and turned down a proposal for a final reunion of the last remnants of the once mighty hosts who fought from 1861 to 1865.

Rep. Robert Sikes (D), Florida, suggested that Woolson, Salling and the nation's two other Civil war survivors assemble in the United States Capitol where at a joint session, Congress could honor them. However, the committee decided the excitement would be too great for men of their advanced age.

So a telephone conversation between Woolson, now 109, and Salling, who is 108, will have to be recorded in the pages of history as the "last meeting" of the Blue and the Gray.

Woolson, the last surviving Union veteran, and Salling, one of three living Confederate soldiers, were McKinley Mitchell, 54, last Feb. 10.

Father Kills Son In Tiff Over Auto

CINCINNATI (P)—Police say a two-day-old quarrel between a father and his son over use of an automobile they owned jointly resulted last night in the fatal shooting of the son.

Officers said Charles Miller Jr., 23, was shot to death as he scuffled with his father, Charles Sr., 49, over a gun which the father said he had fired once into the floor. The shooting occurred in the elder Miller's home, next door to a bait and sporting goods shop he and his son operated in suburban Reading.

Reading police ordered the father held without charge pending a further investigation.

Reading Patrolmen Fred Arthur and Fred Engelman said the father wept as he told them he and his son had quarreled two days about the automobile. He said his son then quit the bait shop Monday but returned last night to get money due him.

The quarrel started again and police said they were told the elder Miller ordered his son out of the house and then went into the store. He returned a few minutes later with a gun, the officers said.

Police said the father kept repeating, "What made me do it? Lord knows I didn't mean to kill him. Why didn't he kill me?"

Slayer Sentenced

PORTSMOUTH (P)—Joseph Henderson, 46, of Portsmouth, was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment in Ohio Penitentiary for the hammer slaying here of McKinley Mitchell, 54, last Feb. 10.

Despite some lack of size, Mickey Milstead was a halfback for the WHS Lion football team for four years and its outstanding player and captain in his senior year. A natural athlete, with speed and agility of mind and body, he also played basketball, but was not so outstanding as he was in football.

Popular among his fellow students at WHS, he took part in many of the extra-curricular activities of the school, particularly in dramatics. He was a member of the Thespian Club, in which he had a deep interest and took part in many of the plays put on by the club as well as the class plays.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his father, Paul Milstead of Berea; three brothers, Glenn in the Army and stationed in Japan, Larry and Max, at home and his grandmothers, Mrs. Julia Milstead of Fayette County and Mrs. Blanche Zimmerman of Washington C. H.

Funeral services are to be held at the Gerstner Funeral Home here at 2 P. M. Friday in charge of Rev. Francis T. McCarty of Columbus, a former pastor of the First Baptist Church here, and Rev. Norman D. Renn, pastor of the First Baptist Church here. Burial is to be in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

Temperatures Due To Range Above Normal

Weatherman Expects Rain Every Afternoon Rest Of This Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A very warm and rainy Memorial Day holiday awaits Ohioans, the weatherman predicted today.

Temperatures are expected to range up to six degrees higher than normal for this time of year. And showers can be expected every afternoon the rest of this week.

The complete forecast for the next five days in Ohio states:

"Temperatures will average 3 to 6 degrees above normal. Normal high 77 north to 82 south. Normal low 55 to 57. Warm and humid Wednesday through Sunday, except cooler in north Thursday and Friday.

"Scattered thundershowers likely each afternoon or evening the remainder of the week with the rainfall averaging one-quarter to three-quarters of an inch, but with some locally heavier amounts."

Meanwhile, warm weather hastened the recovery of flooded areas of Indiana and Illinois.

A HOT SUN began to dry out the Speedway at Indianapolis and thus assured the running of the 500-mile automobile race there tomorrow.

There was a possibility of showers later today but the track proper, a sloping 2½ mile expanse of asphalt and brick, dries quickly. Only trickles of water reached it in a flood yesterday.

The Weather Bureau said there is a possibility of showers tomorrow afternoon which could shorten the four-hour grind as it did the 1926 race, stopped at 400 miles, and the 1950 event, halted at 345.

Temperatures up to 86 degrees, and high humidity, may reproduce the severe driving conditions of the 1953 race in which Carl Scarborough died of heat exhaustion and seven other drivers were hospitalized.

Indianapolis was placed under a state of flood emergency yesterday by Mayor Philip L. Bayt. Officials called out more than 2,100 civil defense workers and ordered policemen to remain on duty.

The flood troubles of Illinois and Indiana were caused by torrential rains during the weekend, and some again yesterday.

But the skies began to clear today. The Weather Bureau said there was a chance of a few scattered thundershowers in both states, but no general downpours were in sight.

MORE THAN 1,500 families were forced to evacuate their homes yesterday in Indianapolis and surrounding Marion County after weekend rains of six to seven inches submerged much of the area. Twenty-one schools were closed as main highways blocked off the east and north sides of the city.

In central Illinois the overflow of the Sangamon River and Salt and Kickapoo creeks began a slow recession, permitting flood waters to drain from thousands of acres of rich farmland.

Heavy weekend cloudbursts dumped as much as nine inches of rain on some sections, washing out highway bridges and undermining railroad tracks.

With only a little more than a month to go, the payment of real estate taxes in Fayette County is lagging.

This was disclosed Tuesday by Treasurer Charles A. Fabb, after a check of the books Monday evening showed $250,258.15 remaining to be paid before the deadline on June 30.

Fabb said that he hoped "the word would get around" so taxes could all be paid before the books are closed to avoid the 10 percent penalty that goes on delinquent taxes automatically under the law.

The present collection period, the second of the year, opened on May 1 and normally would have closed on June 30. However, an extension of time until June 30 was secured when it was apparent that the payments were lagging, Fabb explained.

AT THE START of the year, there was a total of $897,008.57 to be collected. During the first collection period, property owners paid taxes amounting to $634,592.03. This was well over the half of the total that was due at that time, but Fabb explained, many property owners paid the full year tax to bring the total to more than half of the amount due during the first collection period.

That left only $262,416.54 on the books to be paid during the present collection period.

However, since May 1 when the books were opened for the second half collection, only $12,158.39 has been paid.

That leaves $250,258.15 to be paid before the June 30 deadline.

Hearing Set For Boy Who Shot Mother

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A hearing for a 16-year-old boy who told police he shot and killed his mother accidentally will be held early next week before Juvenile Judge Russell Thomas.

John Kenneth Frank was released from the Summit County detention home Monday so he could attend the funeral of his mother in Chicago Thursday.

He told police he was trying to stop a quarrel between his parents when he accidentally discharged a .22 caliber foreign-made automatic pistol. The bullet struck Mrs. Anna E. Fran, 43, in the heart.

The shooting occurred at the Frank home early Sunday after the boy and his parents had attended a dance Saturday night at the Akron Naval Air Station. John said the quarrel between his mother and step-father, Phillip R. Frank, started at the dance. The elder Frank is a chief aviation mechanic stationed at the air base.

Police Capt. Carroll Cutright, who questioned the boy Monday, said, "everything in the case points to accidental shooting."

Assistant Summit County Prosecutor James Barbuto said the boy would return here after the funeral for the hearing before Thomas.

Rev. N. D. Renn, Baptist Pastor Here, Resigns

Action Is Taken At Member Meeting; No Successor Yet

Rev. Norman Renn, who came here as pastor of the First Baptist Church last July, has resigned. He submitted his resignation, effective July 26, at a congregational meeting following the Sunday service. It was accepted.

Rev. Renn said his plans for the future were indefinite. His resignation was a formal statement, he said, and if any reasons for leaving the pastorate here after a year were given, they were kept within the church membership.

Rev. Renn succeeded Rev. Francis T. McCarty, who resigned after eight years here to accept a pastorate in an eastern Columbus suburb, in the East Community Baptist Church.

Rev. Renn came here from Marion where he was the minister of the Fite Baptist Church.

FOLLOWING the resignation by Rev. Renn, and its acceptance by the membership, it was said his successor will be chosen by a Pulpit Committee. This committee, it was said, has not yet been appointed, but that it will be in the near future.

One of the church officers said, however, that services would be held regularly until a new pastor comes in to take the pulpit.

But, a concert that had been scheduled for next Sunday evening's service has been cancelled, a member of the committee announced Tuesday morning. She said that Jan Thompson, tenor, and Ross Reimueler, piano, would not come here from Dayton to give the concert here. She did not say whether it would be rescheduled.

The First Baptist Church here is just now getting a building program under way to take care of the church's growing congregation. A tract of land has been acquired on the CCC Highway, just east of Memorial Hospital, and architects have been consulted about plans for the new church building.

Landon Prison Farm Guard Is Getting Better

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A London Prison Farm guard, stabbed while trying to prevent an escape, is in "good" condition today, a Mount Carmel Hospital aide said.

The guard, Roy Gordon, 35, of Leesburg, received knife wounds in the hands and right side Sunday night while trying to prevent the escape of honor inmate James Esson, a convicted murderer, Supt. R. B. Eckle said.

One of two inmates who walked away about the same time as Esson's escape was arrested in Wilmington Monday. Police identified him as Joseph Ferrall, 46.

Toledo Deputy Killed By Thug

TOLEDO (AP)—A gunman climaxed a wild chase today by killing a deputy sheriff. Speeding away again, he struck and killed a young woman leading a blind man. Then he was captured.

The blind man was injured.

Deputy Sheriff Ray Westover, 35, father of three children, was fatally shot by one of the three men he halted because of an alert from Newell. The state policeman had chased their car for speeding.

Police identified the gunman as John Bowens, 35, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and said that after shooting Westover in Newell's presence he broke away and continued the flight.

As Bowens swerved to avoid a final roadblock in front of St. Charles Hospital, his car struck and killed Ann Marie Martin, 19, an X-ray student at the hospital.

She had been leading Jay Francis, 31, across the street. Blind, he is a hospital employee. He was reported in fair condition.

NEWELL, who stayed behind at the shooting scene, brought the other two men into police headquarters, where they were identified as Walter Bryant, 32, of New York City, and Phillip Powell, 24, of Philadelphia. Detectives said they admitted their car had been stolen in New York.

Bowens, still armed, came out of the car at the final roadblock and was disarmed by two patrolmen.

They quoted him as saying, "I could have splattered you all over the place, but I already killed one man and I thought I had enough."

Boys in Blue and Gray Will Never Meet Again

By RAYMOND WILCOVE (Central Press Association)
WASHINGTON — Three years ago a Union and a Confederate soldier expressed the hope that the Blue and the Gray could get together again.

The two were Albert Woolson, then 106, and John Salling, who was 105. They still are alive, but they will not have their wish.

Never again will the Blue and the Gray meet. Members of the House rules committee met the other day and turned down a proposal for a final reunion of the last remnants of the once mighty hosts who fought from 1861 to 1865.

Rep. Robert Sikes (D), Florida, suggested that Woolson, Salling and the nation's two other Civil war survivors assemble in the United States Capitol where at a joint session, Congress could honor them. However, the committee decided the excitement would be too great for men of their advanced age.

So a telephone conversation between Woolson, now 109, and Salling, who is 108, will have to be recorded in the pages of history as the "last meeting" of the Blue and the Gray.

Father Kills Son In Tiff Over Auto

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say a two-day-old quarrel between a father and his son over use of an automobile they owned jointly resulted last night in the fatal shooting of the son.

Officers said Charles Miller Jr., 23, was shot to death as he scuffled with his father, Charles Sr., 49, over a gun which the father said he had fired once into the floor. The shooting occurred in the elder Miller's home, next door to a bait and sporting goods shop he and his son operated in suburban Reading.

Reading police ordered the father held without charge pending a further investigation.

Reading Patrolmen Fred Arthur and Fred Engelman said the father wept as he told them he and his son had quarreled two days about the automobile. He said his son then quit the bait shop Monday but returned last night to get money due him.

The quarrel started again and police said they were told the elder Miller ordered his son out of the house and then went into the store. He returned a few minutes later with a gun, the officers said.

Police said the father kept repeating, "What made me do it? Lord knows I didn't mean to kill him. Why didn't he kill me?"

Slayer Sentenced

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—Joseph Henderson, 46, of Portsmouth, was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment in Ohio Penitentiary for the hammer slaying here of McKinley Mitchell, 54, last Feb. 10.

Gun Battle Victim in Critical Condition

Deputy Sheriff Steve J. Mohowski of Lorain County, who was shot through the head in a gun battle with police here at 4:20 A. M. Monday, was still in a critical condition in University Hospital, in Columbus Tuesday. Little or no hope was held for his recovery.

Police are holding the .38 calibre police special pistol, just as it was found with two empty shells in it. Each of the bullets allegedly had been fired with intent to wound or kill Patrolman Lang Laytart, who shot it out with Mohowski at the Marathon service station on East Court Street at North Street.

Police are also holding a partly empty bottle of what was at first believed to be Cuban wine; but which later proved to be Cuban rum.

The bottle, taken from Mohowski's car following the shooting, was about half full.

They are also holding 50 extra cartridges found on the seat of his automobile and his luggage.

MOHOSKI was on vacation, in civilian clothes and wore no identification badge. He was carrying a loaded gun with a large supply of extra cartridges. Police said he threatened them with the gun when they reached the scene and then fired a shot at Laytart.

Two other officers, Patrolman Elmer Kelly and Sergeant Walter Marshall, answered the call to the service station with Patrolman Laytart. They joined in the gun battle, Sgt. Marshall from behind a gasoline pump and Patrolman Kelly from behind the police cruiser. It also developed that the first (Please Turn to Page Two)

Mickey Milstead Dies of Injuries

Michael Lee (Mickey) Milstead, 18, died at 7:30 P. M. Monday in University Hospital in Columbus of injuries he received in an automobile accident near Marietta on May 18.

Milstead, the son of Mrs. Helen Milstead, 1012 Yeoman Street, was en route home for a short leave from the Navy when the accident occurred. He was taken first to a hospital in Marietta and later to University Hospital in Columbus.

He had enlisted in the Navy on Sept. 1, 1955, and, after taking his training at New London, Conn., had been assigned to the submarine, Pompon. It was after the submarine had come into port at Baltimore, that he started home on leave.

A native of Washington C. H., he was a member of the First Baptist Church and a 1955 graduate of Washington C. H. High School.

Despite some lack of size, Mickey Milstead was a halfback for the WHS Lion football team for four years and its outstanding player and captain in his senior year. A natural athlete, with speed and agility of mind and body, he also played basketball, but was not so outstanding as he was in football.

Popular among his fellow students at WHS, he took part in many of the extra-curricular activities of the school, particularly in dramatics. He was a member of the Thespian Club, in which he had a deep interest and took part in many of the plays put on by the club as well as the class plays.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his father, Paul Milstead of Berea; three brothers, Glenn in the Army and stationed in Japan, Larry and Max, at home and his grandmothers, Mrs. Julia Milstead of Fayette County and Mrs. Blanche Zimmerman of Washington C. H.

Funeral services are to be held at the Gerstner Funeral Home here at 2 P. M. Friday in charge of Rev. Francis T. McCarty of Columbus, a former pastor of the First Baptist Church here, and Rev. Norman D. Renn, pastor of the First Baptist Church here. Burial is to be in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

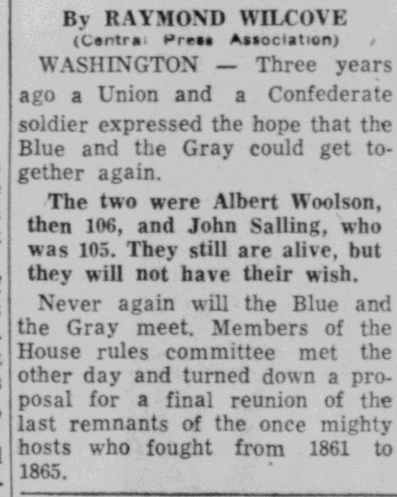

Friends may call at the funeral home after 1 P. M. Wednesday.

Homecoming At Bloomingburg

Two-Day Meet Ends With Church Service

The folks of the Bloomingburg Community were still talking today about the gala high school homecoming held over the weekend.

Alumni of Bloomingburg High School came from all over the country for the affair, an annual event sponsored by the high school's alumni association.

This year's homecoming included a banquet and dance Saturday evening in the school gymnasium and a special union homecoming church service.

Many of the attendants at the banquet and dance got their first look at the new school gymnasium, constructed since the last homecoming. The two events were held there in order that the alumni might see them for themselves.

Sunday's service, despite inclement weather, drew a large crowd to the Bloomingburg Methodist Church. The service was planned by William Purcell, Ted Boldman and Leis Parrett.

Purcell conducted the opening service, in the absence of the minister, Rev. Herbert Ricketts. The service included an anthem by the Methodist junior choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Rex Bloomer and Mrs. Loren Noble.

A joint adult choir, accompanied by Mrs. Ted Vincent, led the singing.

Rev. John Parrett, the son of Mrs. Herbert Ricketts and a 1948 graduate of Bloomingburg High, delivered the sermon.

Since his high school graduation, Rev. Parrett has become a graduate of the College of Wooster and has attended Ohio University and Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh. He is presently in his third year at Western, and is also serving as pastor of the Presbyterian Churches in Mt. Pleasant and Polk, Pa.

Gun Battle Victim

shot fired at Laytard was not followed by the second shot until after Mohowski knew that Laytard had fired six times. It was then, the police report said, that Mohowski, who had been kept pinned down by Laytard's fire, as he sought to shoot, arose and said:

"Now you are out of shells and I'll get you!"

Before he had a chance to fire, Laytard whipped out a newly purchased gun of his own and fired one shot, which struck Mohowski in the left eye, passed through his head, and lodged against the base of his skull.

The bullet was later removed, it was reported, in an operation at University Hospital.

The three police officers said that when they reached the scene after having been notified that a man with a gun was at the station, they were expecting to encounter a hold-up man.

CLARENCE JONES, the service station attendant, who ran to the police station and told police about the man with a gun, later told police that when Mohowski stepped from his car which he had parked in front of the station, that he had committed a nuisance on the sidewalk, talked loudly about so many trucks on the street and asked where the police were.

Police Chief Vaiden Long said Tuesday that if Mohowski recovers he will face a charge of shooting to kill a police officer. Filing of this charge is being held in abeyance, pending outcome of the wound.

Police expressed the belief that after Mohowski had been arrested in Hillsboro at 1:50 A. M. for illegal parking, and detained there for questioning until 3 A. M., that he was still smarting under his arrest there. Since he had the gun in readiness and had asked where the police were, officers here are convinced he probably was "looking for trouble" when he stopped here.

Sheriff Carl Finegan of Lorain

County, who sent the deputies here to check on the shooting, said Mohowski had been a deputy for 2½ years and before that had been three years in the state Highway Patrol. He described him as a "good level-headed officer. He drank very little, not at all the past six months." Sheriff Finegan said he was expected to go on duty at the end of his vacation Monday—the day he was shot.

Season Closed By Chaffin PTO

Class Night Program By Eighth Graders

A gay class night program held at the Chaffin School ended the school's PTO year on a gala note and sent the Chaffin eighth graders on into high school in style.

The event included a varied entertainment program presented by the eighth graders and others, and a formal reception.

Robert Creamer, the eighth grade teacher and the principal, directed the program. Roy James Boggs acted as master of ceremonies.

Nelson Blackmore delivered the welcome and the notes of appreciation at the program, and Margaret Kesner a history of the school. Bonnie Creamer and Beverly McCoppin did a tap dance number, following which Rita Blessing did two vocal solos.

THE CLASS history was read by Carolyn Haines, and a record pantomime was done by Joyce and Sandra Osborne and Marilyn Ross.

Melanie McCullough read the class will, Barbara Creamer did a rhythm dance, and Bobby Penwell, David Baughn and Ronnie Batson did a vocal trio number.

A piano solo was played by Carolyn Carr, after which Bonnie Creamer and Becky McCoppin presented an Irish Clog dance. Bobby Penwell played a harmonica solo.

Singing "barbershop" fashion, Sharon Baker, Garnet Botwick, Susie Kearns and Carolyn Yarger presented a quartette for the audience.

The class prophecy was read by Linda Haines, Barbara Creamer did a tap dance and the whole class sang "Aloha" to close the program.

A gift was given to Mr. Creamer by the class for his work with them through the years.

GUESTS were present at the event by invitation only, since the auditorium is small and could not accommodate the whole PTO. Officers and mothers of seventh and eighth grade students were on the invitation list.

Vocal accompaniment at the performance was done by Mrs. Norman Armbrust.

The reception that followed the program was "strictly formal." A delicate candelabra, and special punchbowl, adorned the room for the affair. Punch, ice cream and cake were served to all the eighth graders and their guests.

A special eighth grade table set aside at the reception was decorated with Orchid Irises, and draped brought together on the phone by Lewis K. Gough, then American Legion national commander.

Speaking from his Duluth, Minn., home, Woolson told his one-time enemy, "Let us shake hands in peace. Let all differences be forgotten by the Boys in Blue and the Boys in Gray. God bless you."

FROY HIS HOME near Slant, Va., Salling replied, "I hope in the near future to meet with you and I hope we both live long enough to have that meeting."

As another Memorial Day is observed once more by a grateful nation, four aged men linger on, the last survivors of 3,477,365 Union and Confederate soldiers.

In addition to Woolson and Salling the remaining survivors, all Confederate, are: William A. Lundy, Laurel Hill, Fla., 108; and Walter W. Williams, Franklin, Tex., 109.

Woolson and Williams are believed to be the only two who saw action in the Civil War. Woolson served with the First Minnesota Heavy Artillery and Williams with Gen. John B. Hood's Cavalry Brigade in Mississippi.

Lundy was a member of the Georgia Home Guard. Only 16 then, he never fired a shot at the enemy though he had the opportunity.

"Several times I placed my gun to my shoulder and took aim at Yankees crossing a bridge at Elba, Ala.," he recalled. However, he never pulled the trigger.

SALLING also joined the Confederate army when he was 16. He spent a year gathering saltpetre for the troops.

The four men live with their relatives. The last of the veterans who lived in county and state homes is gone. Woolson receives a federal pension, while the Confederate veterans receive allotments.

When Woolson dies, he will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery, as will the last of the Confederate veterans. Congress has so provided by law.

Williams has one great ambition. He wishes to live the longest of any Civil War veteran. When James Albert Hard of Rochester, N. Y., died in 1953, he was almost 112 years old.

Williams will be 110 on Nov. 14, while Woolson will reach that age next Feb. 11. The old Confederate thinks he'll "in out, 'You see,' he said, 'my pappy lived to be 119.'"

Former Resident Dies In Westerville

R. Doan Powless, 61, who lived in Washington C. H. during his school days, died suddenly at 10 P. M. Monday at his home, 39 Parkway Avenue, in Westerville.

A native of Mt. Sterling who spent his early life here, he had been in Columbus for about 25 years before going to Westerville about five years ago as service manager of the Columbus Ignition Co.

He is survived by his widow; a son, Ralph D. Powless, Jr., of Shawnee Hills, a Columbus suburb; a daughter, Mrs. Betty Loose of Westerville and one grandchild. He also leaves a brother, Robert Powless, in Florida.

Funeral services are to be held at 2 P. M. Thursday in the Hill Funeral Home in Westerville. Burial is to be in Otterbein Cemetery at Westerville.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 P. M. today.

Lausche's Name To Be Tossed In

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has insisted his chances are "nil" for the presidential nomination. But, nevertheless, he said Monday his name will be placed in nomination at the Democratic national convention in Chicago this August.

The five-term governor, who has received some national attention as a dark-horse possibility for a spot on the national ticket, confirmed that he will attend the convention.

As Ohio Democrats' "favorite son," he has 54 of the state's 58 convention votes pledged to him. There will be no meeting of delegates before the convention, Lausche said.

shot fired at Laytard was not followed by the second shot until after Mohowski knew that Laytard had fired six times. It was then, the police report said, that Mohowski, who had been kept pinned down by Laytard's fire, as he sought to shoot, arose and said:

"Now you are out of shells and I'll get you!"

Before he had a chance to fire, Laytard whipped out a newly purchased gun of his own and fired one shot, which struck Mohowski in the left eye, passed through his head, and lodged against the base of his skull.

The bullet was later removed, it was reported, in an operation at University Hospital.

The three police officers said that when they reached the scene after having been notified that a man with a gun was at the station, they were expecting to encounter a hold-up man.

CLARENCE JONES, the service station attendant, who ran to the police station and told police about the man with a gun, later told police that when Mohowski stepped from his car which he had parked in front of the station, that he had committed a nuisance on the sidewalk, talked loudly about so many trucks on the street and asked where the police were.

Police Chief Vaiden Long said Tuesday that if Mohowski recovers he will face a charge of shooting to kill a police officer. Filing of this charge is being held in abeyance, pending outcome of the wound.

Police expressed the belief that after Mohowski had been arrested in Hillsboro at 1:50 A. M. for illegal parking, and detained there for questioning until 3 A. M., that he was still smarting under his arrest there. Since he had the gun in readiness and had asked where the police were, officers here are convinced he probably was "looking for trouble" when he stopped here.

Sheriff Carl Finegan of Lorain

County, who sent the deputies here to check on the shooting, said Mohowski had been a deputy for 2½ years and before that had been three years in the state Highway Patrol. He described him as a "good level-headed officer. He drank very little, not at all the past six months." Sheriff Finegan said he was expected to go on duty at the end of his vacation Monday—the day he was shot.

NEW YORK (AP)—Financial and commodity markets throughout the United States will be closed tomorrow, Memorial Day.

Season Closed By Chaffin PTO

Class Night Program
By Eighth Graders

A gay class night program held at the Chaffin School ended the school's PTO year on a gala note and sent the Chaffin eighth graders on into high school in style.

The event included a varied entertainment program presented by the eighth graders and others, and a formal reception.

Robert Creamer, the eighth grader, and the principal, directed the program. Roy James Boggs acted as master of ceremonies.

Nelson Blackmore delivered the welcome and the notes of appreciation at the program, and Margaret Kesner a history of the school. Bonnie Creamer and Beverly McCoppin did a tap dance number, following which Rita Blessing did two vocal solos.

THE CLASS history was read by Carolyn Haines, and a record pantomime was done by Joyce and Sandra Osborne and Marilyn Ross.

Melanie McCullough read the class will, Barbara Creamer did a rhythm dance, and Bobby Penwell, David Baughn and Ronnie Batson did a vocal trio number.

A piano solo was played by Carolyn Carr, after which Bonnie Creamer and Becky McCoppin presented an Irish Clog dance. Bobby Penwell played a harmonica solo.

Singing "barbershop" fashion, Sharon Baker, Garnet Bostwick, Susie Kearns and Carolyn Yarger presented a quartette for the audience.

The class prophecy was read by Linda Haines, Barbara Creamer did a tap dance and the whole class sang "Aloha" to close the program.

A gift was given to Mr. Creamer by the class for his work with them through the years.

GUESTS were present at the event by invitation only, since the auditorium is small and could not accommodate the whole PTO. Officers and mothers of seventh and eighth grade students were on the invitation list.

Vocal accompaniment at the performance was done by Mrs. Norman Armbrust.

The reception that followed the program was "strictly formal." A delicate candelabra, and special punchbowl, adorned the room for the affair. Punch, ice cream and cake were served to all the eighth graders and their guests.

A special eighth grade table set aside at the reception was decorated with Orchid Irises, and draped

Serving the reception were mothers of the seventh grade students, under the direction of Mrs. Matt McDonald. Mrs. Alfred Hagler was the food chairman and Mrs. Ned Abbott was in charge of decorations.

Youngsters in the eighth grade, besides those taking part in the program are Tom Stookey and Mary Boysel.

brought together on the phone by Lewis K. Gough, then American Legion national commander.

Speaking from his Duluth, Minn., home, Woolson told his one-time enemy, "Let us shake hands in peace. Let all differences be forgotten by the Boys in Blue and the Boys in Gray. God bless you."

FROY HIS HOME near Slant, Va., Salling replied, "I hope in the near future to meet with you and I hope we both live long enough to have that meeting."

As another Memorial Day is observed once more by a grateful nation, four aged men linger on, the last survivors of 3,447,365 Union and Confederate soldiers.

In addition to Woolson and Salling, the remaining survivors, all Confederate, are: William A. Lundy, Laurel Hill, Fla., 108, and Walter W. Williams, Franklin, Tex., 109.

Woolson and Williams are believed to be the only two who saw action in the Civil war. Woolson served with the First Minnesota Heavy Artillery and Williams with Gen. John B. Hood's Cavalry Brigade in Mississippi.

Lundy was a member of the Georgia Home Guard. Only 16 then, he never fired a shot at the enemy though he had the opportunity. "Several times I placed my gun to my shoulder and took aim at Yankees crossing a bridge at Elba, Ala.," he recalled. However, he never pulled the trigger.

SALLING also joined the Confederate army when he was 16. He spent a year gathering saltpeter for the troops.

The four men live with their relatives. The last of the veterans who lived in county and state homes is gone. Woolson receives a federal pension, while the Confederate veterans receive allotments.

When Woolson dies, he will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery, as will the last of the Confederate veterans. Congress has so provided by law.

Williams has one great ambition. He wishes to live the longest of any Civil war veteran. When James Albert Hard of Rochester, N. Y., died in 1953, he was almost 112 years old.

Williams will be 110 on Nov. 14, while Woolson will reach that age next Feb. 11. The old Confederate thinks he'll "in out. "You see," he said, "my pappy lived to be 119."

Former Resident Dies in Westerville

R. Doan Powless, 61, who lived in Washington C. H. during his school days, died suddenly at 10 P. M. Monday at his home, 39 Parkview Avenue, in Westerville.

A native of Mt. Sterling who spent his early life here, he had been in Columbus for about 25 years before going to Westerville about five years ago as service manager of the Columbus Ignition Co.

He is survived by his widow; a son, Ralph D. Powless, Jr., of Shawnee Hills, a Columbus suburb; a daughter, Mrs. Betty Loose of Westerville and one grandchild. He also leaves a brother, Robert Powless, in Florida.

Funeral services are to be held at 2 P. M. Thursday in the Hill Funeral Home in Westerville. Burial is to be in Otterbein Cemetery at Westerville.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 P. M. today.

Lausche's Name To Be Tossed In

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has insisted his chances are "nil" for the presidential nomination. But, nevertheless, he said Monday his name will be placed in nomination at the Democratic national convention in Chicago this August.

The five-term governor, who has received some national attention as a dark-horse possibility for a spot on the national ticket, confirmed that he will attend the convention.

As Ohio Democrats' "favorite son," he has 34 of the state's 58 convention votes pledged to him.

There will be no meeting of delegates before the convention, Lausche said.

Swimming Pool Ready To Open

First Splash Set For Memorial Day

Given anything like a break by the Weatherman, the swimming pool in Washington Park—just across Oakland Avenue from the public park — will be brimful of water and ready for the first dive of the season on Memorial Day.

That was the promise today of Hugh Rea, who is to be the pool manager this year. If the weather does interfere, the pool is to be opened as soon as it warms up and the sun comes out, Rea said.

Rea, the principal of the Rose Avenue School during nine months of the year, succeeds Roger Hoffman as the headman. Hoffman, a former teacher in Washington C. H. High School, is now connected with a feed company and has no time for the swimming pool—except possibly as a swimmer.

Hours for the pool were announced by the new manager as 10 A. M. until 9 P. M. on every day except Saturday and Sunday, when it will open at 1 P. M. and remain open until the usual closing time of 9 P. M.

Five young men and a woman have been named for the guards this year. They are Ralph Sommers, a member of the Ohio University swimming team; Jerry Speakman, just finishing his sophomore year at Ohio University; Bruce Barlow, a graduate of Wilmington College; James Newbrey, another Ohio University student; Mickey Moylan, an Ohio State University student, and Mrs. Kenneth Curl of Washington C. H.

Mrs. Robert Green is to conduct classes in swimming again this year. Sandra Rose is to be her assistant. Lessons are to start June 4—the weather permitting. Although the schedule has not yet been drawn up in detail, the classes are to be held from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M.

B. M. (Mac) Marlin, office manager of the Arceo Drainage and Metal Products Co. here, is chairman of the park board and Earl Miller, principal of the Cherry Hill School, is board's treasurer.

The park and swimming pool facilities will be available again this year, as in the past, on a membership basis: $10 for a master membership and $2 for an associate membership (plus tax) and guest tickets at 50 cents each.

The manager and the treasurer have membership cards and they also can be secured at the pool after it opens.

Scholarship Plaque To Be in WHS Soon

A plaque which gives recognition to scholarship will soon be hanging on the wall of the main corridor of Washington C. H. High School with the name of the first student to receive it engraved on it.

The plaque was put up by the last three members of the Washington C. H. School Board, Frank Brown, A. E. Weatherly and Walter Rettig, to encourage and reward scholastic achievement by WHS students.

The first student to have his name engraved on it is Charles Armour, whose scholastic average was 3.972, the highest grade is 4.00. He was graduated last week with honors and is now an alumnus of WHS.

The plaque is now in the hands of the jeweler having the date inscribed on the name plate. When that is finished, the plaque is to be hung in the high school's main corridor for all to see.

Each year the name of the top student and his, or her, scholastic average is to be engraved on the plaque. It is to remain on the wall in the high school.

Under controlled heat and light conditions, hand-reared grouse and quail will produce eggs in winter.

$49,066,732 Check Is Handed To Ohio

NEW YORK (AP)—Ohio's treasurer, Roger W. Tracy, was on his way home today with a check for $49,066,732 to pay for some of the new roads the Buckeye state is building this year.

The check was handed Tracy after a ceremony witnessed by Ohio Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. It came from a 50-million-dollar issue of Ohio's major thoroughfare construction bonds sold at competitive bidding recently.

The check was presented to Tracy by Thomas B. MacDonald, assistant treasurer of Blyth T Co., manager of the underwriting syndicate which bought the bonds.

The bonds represented the third installment of a total 500-million-dollar authorization approved by Ohio voters in 1953.

Ohio Bell Plant Offices Moved

Business Office Still On Court St.

The plant offices, supply department and garage of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. here today were just about all straightened around for "business as usual" in the new headquarters for these operations in the new building on South North Street.

Most of the actual moving of the supplies and office equipment was completed Sunday; only the arranging and rearranging of all this had to be done later and now that is about finished.

Later on, the poles will be moved to the pole yard at the new location.

The move was made from the building on the west side of South North Street on the south bank of Paint Creek.

About a third of the new building, which has just been completed, is devoted to the offices and the supply room; the rest is used for a garage for the company's trucks and cars.

THE NEW building, about two blocks south of Elm Street, is 82 feet wide and 102 feet deep.

This will be the headquarters for about 25 employees of the Ohio Bell Co. now.

R. H. Allen, the plant manager, er, has his office there as also do Lester Johnson, the central office equipment foreman; Eddie Evans, the installation foreman, and Glenn Grim, the general supply foreman in charge of such as cables and construction.

The business office and the exchange with all of its complicated dial telephone equipment are to remain in the present location on Court Street. The move of the offices and supplies and the garage to the head headquarters will have little effect on the business office and exchange routine.

Sneaky Companion Costs Man 3 Days Out Of His Life

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—If you have an urge to go "on the town," pick your companions well. A sneaky one cost Gilbert A. Charles, 34, three days out of his life.

Charles was arrested Jan. 5 after a minor auto accident. He admitted he was drunk and, since he was in the driver's seat, also conceded he had been driving. Next day in court, he pleaded guilty of drunk driving, paid a $200 fine, gave up his driver's license for a year and spent three days in jail.

But today, Charles has his money and license back.

Municipal Judge Lowell C. Thompson told Charles: "We're sorry, but we can't give you back your three days."

Charles found out just the other day that he hadn't been driving.

Hours for the pool were announced by the new manager as 10 A. M. until 9 P. M. on every day except Saturday and Sunday, when it will open at 1 P. M. and remain open until the usual closing time of 9 P. M.

Five young men and a woman have been named for the guards this year. They are Ralph Sommers, a member of the Ohio University swimming team; Jerry Speakman, just finishing his sophomore year at Ohio University; Bruce Barlow, a graduate of Wilmington College; James Newbrey, another Ohio University student; Mickey Moylan, an Ohio State University student, and Mrs. Kenneth Curl of Washington C. H.

Mrs. Robert Green is to conduct classes in swimming again this year. Sandra Rose is to be her assistant. Lessons are to start June 4—the weather permitting. Although the schedule has not yet been drawn up in detail, the classes are to be held from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M.

B. M. (Mac) Marlin, office manager of the Armo Drainage and Metal Products Co. here, is chairman of the park board and Earl Miller, principal of the Cherry Hill School, is board's treasurer.

The park and swimming pool facilities will be available again this year, as in the past, on a membership basis: $10 for a master membership and $2 for an associate membership (plus tax) and guest tickets at 50 cents each.

The manager and the treasurer have membership cards and they also can be secured at the pool after it opens.

Scholarship Plaque To Be in WHS Soon

A plaque which gives recognition to scholarship will soon be hanging on the wall of the main corridor of Washington C. H. High School with the name of the first student to receive it engraved on it.

The plaque was put up by the last three members of the Washington C. H. School Board, Frank Brown, A. E. Weatherly and Walter Rettig, to encourage and reward scholastic achievement by WHS students.

The first student to have his name engraved on it is Charles Armour, whose scholastic average was 3.972; the highest grade is 4.00. He was graduated last week with honors and is now an alumnus of WHS.

The plaque is now in the hands of the jeweler having the date inscribed on the name plate. When that is finished, the plaque is to be hung in the high school's main corridor for all to see.

Each year the name of the top student and his, or her, scholastic average is to be engraved on the plaque. It is to remain on the wall in the high school.

Under controlled heat and light conditions, hand-reared grouse and quail will produce eggs in winter.

$49,066,732 Check Is Handed To Ohio

NEW YORK (AP)—Ohio's treasurer, Roger W. Tracy, was on his way home today with a check for $49,066,732 to pay for some of the new roads the Buckeye state is building this year.

The check was handed Tracy after a ceremony witnessed by Ohio Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. It came from a 50-million-dollar issue of Ohio's major thoroughfare construction bonds sold at competitive bidding recently.

The check was presented to Tracy by Thomas B. MacDonald, assistant treasurer of Blyth & Co., manager of the underwriting syndicate which bought the bonds.

The bonds represented the third dollar authorization approved by installment of a total 500-million-Ohio voters in 1953.

Ohio Bell Plant Offices Moved

Business Office Still On Court St.

The plant offices, supply department and garage of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. here today were just about all straightened around for "business as usual" in the new headquarters for these operations in the new building on South North Street.

Most of the actual moving of the supplies and office equipment was completed Sunday; only the arranging and rearranging of all this had to be done later and now that is about finished.

Later on, the poles will be moved to the pole yard at the new location.

The move was made from the building on the west side of South North Street on the south bank of Paint Creek.

About a third of the new building, which has just been completed, is devoted to the offices and the supply room; the rest is used for a garage for the company's trucks and cars.

THE NEW building, about two blocks south of Elm Street, is 82 feet wide and 102 feet deep.

This will be the headquarters for about 25 employees of the Ohio Bell Co. now.

R. H. Allen, the plant manager, has his office there as also do Lester Johnson, the central office equipment foreman; Eddie Evans, the installation foreman, and Glenn Grim, the general supply foreman in charge of such as cables and construction.

The business office and the exchange with all of its complicated dial telephone equipment are to remain in the present location on Court Street. The move of the offices and supplies and the garage to the head headquarters will have little effect on the business office and exchange routine.

Sneaky Companion Costs Man 3 Days Out Of His Life

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—If you have an urge to go "on the town," pick your companions well. A sneaky one cost Gilbert A. Charles, 34, three days out of his life.

Charles was arrested Jan. 5 after a minor auto accident. He admitted he was drunk and, since he was in the driver's seat, also conceded he had been driving. Next day in court, he pleaded guilty of drunk driving, paid a $200 fine, gave up his driver's license for a year and spent three days in jail.

But today, Charles has his money and license back.

Municipal Judge Lowell C. Thompson told Charles: "We're sorry, but we can't give you back your three days."

Charles found out just the other day that he hadn't been driving.

Memorial Day Is With Us Again

Memorial Day is with us again. It occupies a place in our yearly calendar which is important to every community.

It is a holiday which carries a vital meaning to many people far more than as a day for recreation.

The practice of setting aside a day for decorating the graves of fallen soldiers and recalling their deeds started during the Civil War on a local basis.

In time various legislatures established legal holidays for honoring war dead and the president and the governors united in recommending observance on the same day, May 30, in every state of the union.

The holiday, until quite recently, was most aptly called Decoration Day, which many still prefer to the present official designation.

But by either name, the holiday leads us back to the conflict which fractured the country. The fact that the South's day for honoring its Civil War heroes is April 26 is a reminder of the bitterness of the struggle, a residue of the division remaining to this day, almost a century later.

The war was not fought, as many believe, with the primary objective of abolishing or retaining slavery. That was just one point of contention, albeit a fiery one. The clash was caused by an attempt of the southern states, in defense of states' rights, to set up independently as the Confederate States of America.

The result of the war was to establish that we have a nation, not a league of states, and that no state has a right to secede from the Union.

The war dated from April 12, 1861, with the Confederate bombardment of Union-held Fort Sumter in the harbor at Charleston, S. C., and ended for all practical purposes when Gen. Robert E. Lee surrendered to Gen. Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox Court House in Virginia on April 9, 1865.

The North split the South by opening up the Mississippi River to union vessels in 1862 and 1863.

In July of the latter year the South's attempt to carry the war to the North was shattered at Gettysburg, Pa.

In the latter part of 1864 Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman's march to the sea through the heart of the Confederacy dealt a grave blow to the southern cause.

Grant's battering of Lee's army in Virginia in 1864 and in the spring of 1865 finished the job.

The statistics show why it was almost inevitable that the bigger, more highly industrialized North would win, despite brilliant southern generalship.

The North was able to muster 2,778,304 men, the South only about 600,000.

The margin was too great even though Union deaths totaled 349,944 (including some 110,000 in battle and from wounds and 200,000 from disease) as compared to some 135,000 Confederate fatalities.

Today Memorial Day has reached new heights in meaning. It no longer only reminiscent of the Civil War. It has become a time of thoughtfulness of all loved ones who have passed on.

Lonely Tom At Peace Now

By Hal Boyle

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Once upon a time there was a boy born here 100 years old at his birth. Or so he always felt.

He was the youngest of eight children, the "baby" in the family. He was a strange child, thin and pale-faced, and given to long brooding silences. He wore dresses until he was at least 3. His mother didn't cut his shoulder-length curls until he was nearly 9.

His father, who carved and sold tombstones, could quote Shakespeare and the Bible endlessly. These things may have helped give the boy his early preoccupation with death and time and literature.

The boy, Tom Wolfe, grew into a raw-boned giant 6 feet 5½. His mind matched his stature. In a lonely room in London he wrote a classic first novel, "Look Homeward, Angel," which told of his lost youth and every man's heart hunger for a previous time gone by.

He was just 29, and the world acclaimed him as a new literary titan. But many folks here thought Tom had been too brutally frank in portraying both his family and his townpeople.

For years Tom felt himself an outcast, more lost and lonely than ever. But before his death in 1938 time softened the anger of citizens here, and today he is recognized as Asheville's most famous son.

The town has made a museum of the old rambling 22-room white clapboard house in which he dreamed as a boy, and in which his mother, Julia, sometimes cooked for as many as 35 to 40 summer boarders.

Thousands of visitors make a pilgrimage here each year. They are people who loved Tom through his books, which still sell widely. They range from garage mechanics to college presidents, but many are young students.

"The younger generation think he's wonderful," said Wolfe's sister, Mrs. Mabel Wheaton, who showed me through the old home.

Mrs. Wheaton, who is 10 years older than Tom and was the closest member of the family to him in life, resembles him physically. She is tall and shares his tremendous energy, his gusto for living. She was a singer in her youth.

"Tom always said he was 100 years old when he was born," she said, "and I think he really was."

She guided me into the parlor past two fading hallway mottoes that said, "Do Right and Fear Not" and "Peace be Unto This House."

She sat down at an ancient upright piano and played a few bars from Stephen Foster's "Beautiful Dreamer."

"The whole family used to like to sing that," she remarked. "Tom liked all tuneless things." The old-fashioned furniture was marked with the signs of much usage. Everything in the house bore the signature of vigorous past life.

Mabel led me to the room in which had been put Tom's furniture from his New York apartment and his two typewriters. His worn leather briefcase leaned against a table leg on the floor, as if he had left it there only a moment before and would soon be back. The furniture was old and worn.

"Tom really never had anything fine in his life," said his sister, and I felt sad.

After leaving Mrs. Wheaton I went out to Riverside Cemetery where Tom, who always felt lost, now can be found by any stranger. He is buried in a woodland setting by his father and mother, and on his tombstone is this apt quotation from one of his own books:

"Death Bent to Touch His Chosen Son With Mercy, Love and Pity, and Put the Seal of Honor on Him When He Died."

Tom, who once in his loneliness wrote, "You Can't Go Home Again," did, in fact, after "The Tumult, the Fever, and the Fret," come back to the only home he ever knew, the temple of the past in which time stands still forever.

Hard Fist Was Not Always Hard

By George Sokolsky

In his famous Birmingham speech, Nikita Khrushchev said:

"I should like to remind those who shake a fist at us that this method has already been tried. As the saying goes in our country: 'You can't leave a word out of a song,' the truth must be told straight to the face. After the October revolution many came to our country shaking their fists. In the north the fist-shaking was done by British invaders, in the east by the American and Japanese, in Odessa by the French invaders, and in the Ukraine by the Germans. But the Russian people, defending their country, kicked out both the foreign and their own invaders. Hitler also tried to attack us, with clenched fists, but you know what came of it. Which means that the fist method is not suitable in our case."

This is not quite correct as history. The first part deals with the years 1917-20 before the Soviet government had established itself in the whole of Russia. I can recite some of that history from personal observation because I was in Russia, in Siberia and in China in those years, moving about with considerable freedom.

It was then American policy to prevent Japan from occupying Manchuria and Siberia from Vladivostok to Chita. So we sent over some troops and engineers to run the maritime provinces sector of the trans-Siberian railroad. A number of Czechs who had been prisoners of war in Russia had marched across the country and had become situated at Chita. They were eventually taken out of Siberia by the Americans and returned to Czechoslovakia.

Attaman Semenov, the White Russian Cossack, was stationed at Manchuli from which he was conducting raids into Siberia and Mongolia. Baron Ungern-Sternberg, a Balt, was setting up a Buddhist kingdom at Urga with himself as a sadistic ruler. At Ufa, a pro-Soviet government, ostensibly independent, was being established which was ultimately recognized as the government of eastern Siberia.

As soon as that situation was stabilized, the Ufa government capitulated to Lenin's government. Attaman Semenov and Admiral Kolchak were defeated and disappeared from history, but what made that possible was the defeat of the Japanese by Siberian partisans at Nikolaevsk (1920) and the heavy Siberian frost which resulted in sentries being found turned into ice overnight.

Had it not been for the American intervention, Japan could have and would have taken Manchuria and the maritime provinces of Siberia in 1918. That would have changed the whole course of Russian and Far Eastern history, because it is doubtful if, in the circumstance of those years, Soviet Russia could have mustered sufficient strength to dislodge the Japanese, particularly as, at that time, the peoples of these areas were prevalently non-Russian. As a matter of fact, it was because of the danger of further Japanese intervention prior to 1925 that the Soviet government encouraged Russian migrations to Siberian areas and tried eventually to establish the Jewish republic of Biro-Bidjan in one of the least livable parts of this country, around the city of Khabarovsk.

As to the World War II reference in Khrushchev's speech, he omits the fact that Hitler did not shake his fist at Russia when the war started; that, in fact, Hitler and Stalin were allies and their alliance was based on the Ribbentrop-Molotov pact, one of the most outrageous documents in human history, designed to enslave whole peoples. When Hitler turned on Stalin, it was the United States that came to

Cereal And Bread Energy Builders

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Cereals and breads are just about the cheapest energy foods we can buy. Both contain protein for growth and rebuilding of body structure.

Thiamin, or vitamin B-1, is found in whole grain, enriched or restored breads and cereals and is important to you for many reasons. It helps create a good appetite, sound nerves, strong muscles and it helps prevent fatigue.

Iron is the mineral added to Stalin's rescue because of the precarious position of Great Britain. The generosity of Harry Hopkins produced $11,000,000.00 of the American taxpayer's money for Stalin, so that in due course, it was American machinery and American credits which laid the foundation for Soviet Russia's present advanced industry.

not only of the atomic bomb but of other scientific and engineering developments, and where-as they have done very well with what they have stolen, it was a theft of our heritage and the least they can do is be thankful for what they got by thievery.

enriched products. It is helpful in building rich, red blood.

In some milling processes, the important outer coats of grains, which contain valuable vitamins and minerals, are removed. This means the grains must be enriched to regain much of their nutritive value.

You can usually identify the whole grain cereals by their rough texture and slightly dark color. Generally they are made from the entire kernel of wheat, oats, corn and rice.

Read Labels

For the most part other cereals are either enriched or restored. It is a good idea to read the label on cereal packages to make sure they are whole grain, enriched or restored.

You know that cereals make good breakfast foods and that they can even be used as desserts, as in oatmeal cookies. But there's another way you can work them into your menu which probably will save you money as well as give you their extra nutritional value.

Meat Stretcher

Here's a suggestion for a "meat stretcher"—a meat loaf with oatmeal. The following recipe serves four persons:

- 1 lb hamburger steak
- 1 medium diced onion
- 1 c. uncooked oatmeal
- 1 c. milk or 1 c. tomatoes
- 1½ tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. pepper.

Mix all the ingredients thoroughly. Place them in a greased tin and bake in a moderate oven for about 45 min. You can serve the loaf hot or cold.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

J. K.: What is the best method of treating a sprain?

Answer: It is usually best to administer cold applications. It seems that cold diminishes the amount of swelling and bleeding into the tissues.

I can recite some of that history from personal observation because I was in Russia, in Siberia and in China in those years, moving about with considerable freedom.

It was then American policy to prevent Japan from occupying Manchuria and Siberia from Vladivostok to Chita. So we sent over some troops and engineers to run the maritime provinces sector of the trans-Siberian railroad. A number of Czechs who had been prisoners of war in Russia had marched across the country and had become situated at Chita. They were eventually taken out of Siberia by the Americans and returned to Czechoslovakia.

Attaman Semenov, the White Russian Cossack, was stationed at Manchuli from which he was conducting raids into Siberia and Mongolia. Baron Ungern-Sternberg, a Balt, was setting up a Buddhist kingdom at Urga with himself as a sadistic ruler. At Ufa, a pro-Soviet government, ostensibly independent, was being established which was ultimately recognized as the government of eastern Siberia.

As soon as that situation was stabilized, the Ufa government capitulated to Lenin's government. Attaman Semenov and Admiral Kolchak were defeated and disappeared from history, but what made that possible was the defeat of the Japanese by Siberian partisans at Nikolaievsk (1920) and the heavy Siberian frost which resulted in sentries being found turned into ice overnight.

Had it not been for the American intervention, Japan could have and would have taken Manchuria and the maritime provinces of Siberia in 1918. That would have changed the whole course of Russian and Far Eastern history, because it is doubtful if, in the circumstance of those years, Soviet Russia could have mustered sufficient strength to dislodge the Japanese, particularly as, at that time, the peoples of these areas were prevalently non-Russian. As a matter of fact, it was because of the danger of further Japanese intervention prior to 1925 that the Soviet government encouraged Russian migrations to Siberian areas and tried eventually to establish the Jewish republic of Biro-Bidjan in one of the least livable parts of this country, around the city of Khabarovsk.

As to the World War II reference in Khrushchev's speech, he omits the fact that Hitler did not shake his fist at Russia when the war started; that, in fact, Hitler and Stalin were allies and their alliance was based on the Ribbentrop-Molotov pact, one of the most outrageous documents in human history, designed to enslave whole peoples. When Hitler turned on Stalin, it was the United States that came to

Diet and Health

Cereal And Bread Energy Builders

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Cereals and breads are just about the cheapest energy foods we can buy. Both contain protein for growth and rebuilding of body structure.

Thiamin, or vitamin B-1, is found in whole grain, enriched or restored breads and cereals and is important to you for many reasons. It helps create a good appetite, sound nerves, strong muscles and it helps prevent fatigue.

Iron is the mineral added to Stalin's rescue because of the precarious position of Great Britain. The generosity of Harry Hopkins produced $11,000,000,000 of the American taxpayer's money for Stalin, so that in due course, it was American machinery and American credits which laid the foundation for Soviet Russia's present advanced industry.

Also, it needs to be remembered that the Russians managed to steal many American blueprints, not only of the atomic bomb but of other scientific and engineering developments, and where as they have done very well with what they have stolen, it was a theft of our heritage and the least they can do is be thankful for what they got by thievery.

Apparently there is no gratitude among the Slavs.

enriched products. It is helpful in building rich, red blood.

In some milling processes, the important outer coats of grains, which contain valuable vitamins and minerals, are removed. This means the grains must be enriched to regain much of their nutritive value.

You can usually identify the whole grain cereals by their rough texture and slightly dark color. Generally they are made from the entire kernel of wheat, oats, corn and rice.

Read Labels

For the most part other cereals are either enriched or restored. It is a good idea to read the label on cereal packages to make sure they are whole grain, enriched or restored.

You know that cereals make good breakfast foods and that they can even be used as desserts, as in oatmeal cookies.

But there's another way you can work them into your menu which probably will save you money as well as give you their extra nutritional value.

Meat Stretcher

Here's a suggestion for a "meat stretcher"—a meat loaf with oatmeal. The following recipe serves four persons:

- 1 lb hamburger steak
- 1 medium diced onion
- 1 c. uncooked oatmeal
- 1 c. milk or 1 c. tomatoes
- 1½ tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. pepper.

Mix all the ingredients thoroughly. Place them in a greased tin and bake in a moderate oven for about 45 min. You can serve the loaf hot or cold.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
J. K.: What is the best method of treating a sprain?

Answer: It is usually best to administer cold applications. It seems that cold diminishes the amount of swelling and bleeding into the tissues.

Mother's Circle Banquet Climaxes Calendar Year Of Philanthropic Work

The Washington Country Club was beautifully decorated with arrangements of peonies, roses and other cut flowers for the annual Mother's Circle banquet which climaxed the calendar year of philanthropic work.

Members and guests enjoyed a pleasant hour around the punch bowl and the theme was "A Time For Friends."

Later they were seated for the delicious meal and each person found at their place a miniature bale of cotton as favors, also clever programs adorned with cotton bails.

A cotton theme was used throughout the evening with center pieces of miniature baskets filled with cotton, arranged on small branches, the leaves being made of colorful cotton material and the tables lighted with yellow tapers.

Mrs. John Rhoads served as toastmistress for the event and introduced the program in rhyme.

Mrs. Dustin Gorton gave the invocation preceding the delicious meal and following the dinner group singing was enjoyed accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Korn.

Mrs. Marvin Thornburg, retiring president, welcomed the members and guests and introduced the past presidents: Mrs. Martha Reiff, Mrs. Mina Morris, Mrs. Iva Barnett, Mrs. Marie Craig, Mrs. Jocelyn Harper, Mrs. Mary Jo Rose, Mrs. Frances Core, Mrs. Katie Davis and Mrs. Mary Ann Clift.

Also guests Mrs. Florence Craig, Mrs. Blanche Wilson and Mrs. Mary Willis who were presented with corsages made in pastel shades of powder puff cottons.

Two new members, Mrs. Robert Boyd and Mrs. Mark Schaeffer were presented and welcomed into the circle.

Mrs. Rhoads introduced Mrs. Richard Willis, Jr., who sang a beautiful solo "Summertime" accompanied by Mrs. Rhoads and at the conclusion of her number Mrs. Willis the newly elected president was crowned "Queen" by retiring President Mrs. Thornburg. Mrs. Thornburg was presented with a beautiful gift by the circle.

The 1956-57 officers were presented as follows:

Mrs. Richard Willis, Jr., president; Mrs. Robert Green, vice president; Mrs. Paul Dougherty, secretary; Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, treasurer and Mrs. Richard Junk, press reporter.

"The Parade of Cottons" to be viewed in 1956 through the courtesy of Craig Brothers Store, were modeled by Misses Jane Davis, Janice Gillen, Linda Halliday, seph Herbert, chairman and Mrs. Paul Rodenfels.

The social committee in charge of the banquet was composed of Mrs. Billie Wilson, chairman, Mrs. V. O. Benson, Mrs. David Ogan, Mrs. Richard Willis, Jr., Mrs. W. F. Rettig, Mrs. Jack Hagerty, Mrs. R. Alumni Banquet Held At School In Bloomingburg

More than two hundred graduates of Bloomingburg High School and their guests assembled at the school building Saturday, for an evening of reminiscence and the renewal of old friendships. The occasion was the annual alumni banquet, assembling graduates from the class of 1903 to the 1956 class.

Following the invocation delivered by Rev. John Parrett, the graduates enjoyed a three-course steak dinner served by the women of the Presbyterian Church.

Harry Craig, president of the association, acted as toastmaster for the short program and introduced his fellow-officers: Vice-President — Robert Jefferson; Secretary — Mrs. Joe Elliott; Assistant Secretary — Mrs. Lawrence Hoppes; and treasurer — Mrs. Delbert Looker.

The highlight of the program was the roll call by classes, which was climaxed by welcoming into the association ten of the thirteen 1956 graduates: Leroy Barton, Zana Cowdery, Marilyn Heistand, Marcella Leach, Ronnie McCoy, Nancy Mossbarger, Frances Ober-schlake, Paula Turnepseed, Ivalou Vandyne, and Lester Vincent.

The president appointed Mrs. Elton Elliott, long-time teacher in the Bloomingburg Schools, alumni librarian, and requested that any change of address be sent to her in order to keep the mailing list up to date.

Finally he received the report of nominating committee chairman William Purcell, who named the following officers for 1957: President — Loren Noble; Vice-President

Ohioana Library Pilgrimage Soon

Mrs. Faye Mayo
County Chairman

Members of the Martha Kinney Cooper Ohioana Library Association have chosen an extensive tour of the state capital for their annual Spring Pilgrimage. Mrs. Faye Mayo, 813 South Fayette Street, Ohioana chairman for Fayette County, announced Tuesday.

The pilgrimage, she said, would be held on Saturday, June 9. Mrs. Mayo is on the Washington C. H. High School faculty.

More than 100 points of interest in Columbus are listed on the tour which begins at 11:15 A. M. with an inspection of the Ohio Union Building at Ohio State University, where luncheon is scheduled at 11:45 A. M.

Dr. Howard Bevis, president of The Ohio State University, and Dr. Harold Yoshum, president of Capital University, will speak briefly during the luncheon hour.

The swing around the city by special buses, each with a guide, will include the OSU campus; Ohio State Museum; St. Stephen's Church, the award-winning example of modern ecclesiastical architecture; North American Aviation plant; the new and the old Governor's Mansions; Capital University; the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts; Civic Center and many others.

Two stops will be made en route, the first at the Garden of Roses and the second for refreshments at Capital University.

During the morning hours members will be on their own to tour the State Capital Building, the Ohioana Library in the Ohio Department Building and other points of interest not included in the bus tour.

The pilgrimage honors two board members of Ohioana, Mrs. Frank Lausche and Mrs. Howard Bevis whose official residency in Columbus ends this year.

Hostesses will be in attendance at the Museum and the Ohio Union.

Mrs. George E. Florence and Mrs. Letta W. Hesse, both of Columbus, are co-chairmen of the day's program.

$42,294.73 Paid To County Aged

Variance Shown In Many Counties

During May total payments in Fayette County under the Division of Aid for the Aged reached $42,294.73 and was shared by 705 persons.

The average payment in Fayette County for the month was $56.44. Of the total amount paid, $2,305.73 went to 46 persons for health care in addition to the regular payment.

The average payment here was about the same as that in most of the other counties.

Average in Clinton County was $58.05; Ross County $56.91; Highland $57.85; Madison $57.99; Greene $57.40; Pickaway $56.16.

The smallest monthly average for any county was Jefferson County, $53.25.

Whether you own or rent this is the new way and the modern way to get essential insurance to protect your home and personal possessions. North America, the country's oldest and strongest stock fire and marine insurance company, originated this packaged policy to furnish the quality protection homeowners and renters need in one simple policy instead of many. You have only one premium to pay, one policy to keep track of.

The policy covers your home and other structures on the ground (if you own), household goods and personal property. It also includes liability and additional living expenses due to loss or damage. All this protection costs much less than you'd pay to get it in separate policies. And here's another worthwhile benefit:—you get extra value with your North America policy, and 'on-the-spot' personal service from your North America agent. He's an independent local businessman, trained to protect your welfare.

National Loop Far Different From Last Year

Milwaukee Replaces Brooklyn As League's Front-Running Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
This, in case you hadn't noticed, is a brand new year in the National League.

A year ago, the NL went into the Memorial Day milepost strung out behind Brooklyn, with the Dodgers enjoying a six-game bulge and St. Louis and Milwaukee 11 games back. Pittsburgh, going through its regular pantomime, was 18 games to the rear and in the cellar.

That was last year. Right now Milwaukee is winning what has been a two-way scrap for the lead with St. Louis, while the Pirates are just a game back.

And where's Brooklyn? Three games back in fifth.

Milwaukee blasted the Cardinals 10-3 Monday night, thus removing a screwy predicament that had them a length short in the "games behind" column but still in first. Pittsburgh made it cozy by nudging the Brooks 3-2 — with Bob Friend winning his eighth on a two-hitter and Dale Long hitting his eighth home run in eight games to better his major league record set Saturday.

Bob Rush's three-hitter tripped Cincinnati as the Chicago Cubs won 4-1. Philadelphia kept the road record for New York by beating the Giants 5-2.

In the American League, the race has the look of a romp. The New York Yankees grabbed a 4½-game lead, beating Boston 2-0 as Whitey Ford gained his seventh triumph and second shutout while the runner-up Cleveland Indians lost to Detroit 3-1. Kansas City dumped Chicago's White Sox 6-4, on a two-run homer by Enos Slaughter in the ninth, and Baltimore clipped Washington 6-5 in 10 innings.

The only hits off Friend, who has lost two, were a first-inning homer by Duke Snider and a one-out single by Junior Gilliam in the third. Carl Erskine was the loser. Bobby Thomson and Del Crandall homered for the Braves, who had a 6-0 lead in two frames to chase Herm Wehmeier. Gene Conley, in relief of Lou Sleater, was the winner.

Harvey Haddix, with ace Robin Roberts relieving in the eighth, won his first for the Phils.

Roy McMillan got two hits off Rush, who fanned seven and walked one, and scored a run that stood up until the fifth. Then the Cubs racked Joe Nuxhall for four runs — two on a bases-loaded double by Ernie Banks.

Ford, in trouble only twice, scattered five Boston hits while the Yanks made the most of four singles off Frank Sullivan. Two in the first and an infield out by Yogi Berra, back from an eight-game stay on the injury list, scored one run. Two errors by shortstop Bob Buddin helped the other across in the fourth.

Steve Gromek six-hit the Indians while the Tigers got two runs in the fifth on Bob Kennedy's ground-rule double and a force-out to hand Herb Score his fourth defeat.

The White Sox blew a 2-0 lead as Kansas City scored four in the eighth with homers by Gus Zernial and Jim Finigan. They tied it with two in the top of the ninth. Billy Pierce went in as a reliever in the bottom of the ninth. He walked a man, and then came Slaughter. Reliever Mike Fornieles doubled in the 10th and came home with the clincher for the Orioles on Chuck Diering's single.

Chagrin Falls Cage Coach Denied Hike

CLEVELAND — The Chagrin Falls school board in a special meeting last night accepted the resignation of Dale Bruce, who coached Chagrin Falls to the class B semifinals of the state basketball tournament last season.

The board turned down a request for a pay raise made by Bruce in a letter 10 days ago. Mrs. Margaret Tilton, a member of the board, said granting Bruce's request would be unfair to the other teachers.

His salary as head basketball and baseball coach and assistant football coach was $4,170.

opening day of qualifying yesterday when 20 of the 139 starters shot par 72 or better.

At the end of today's 18 holes, the field will be trimmed to the 30 low scores and ties.

Chills Plague Long As He Sets Record

PITTSBURGH — "I got chills all over. It was bigger than the one in Philadelphia. I am glad it happened in Pittsburgh for the people who deserve it."

Dale Long, who threatens to out-mantle Mickey Mantle, stood in the Pittsburgh clubhouse after last night's 3-2 victory over Brooklyn. He was doing his best to tell how it felt to hit his eighth home run in eight games, breaking the major league record he set Saturday in Philadelphia.

"Have you got any left?" somebody asked.

"Who cares as long as we keep on winning," he replied.

Did you ever see a bunch of kids like this? They just keep bouncing back when they're supposed to be knocked out.

"At first I didn't think it was going in (the ball just did make the right field stands, about 375 feet from the plate.) I just put my head down and ran. When I passed Bobby Bragan (Pirate manager) at third, I just shook my head because it was hard to believe."

But the big thing was what happened next.

After Long trundled home with his 14th homer and disappeared into the gloomy confines of the dugout, the roaring crowd of 32,221 stopped the show. They wouldn't let the game continue until Long took a bow. They are beginning to talk about Long, not Mantle, breaking Babe Ruth's record.

Wayjet Cops Top Pace At Lebanon

LEBANON — Wayjet, owned by Dr. William Kaufman of Appleton, Minn., scored his fifth victory in 13 starts last night as he took the feature class CC pace in the Lebanon Raceway harness races.

Wayjet, driven by Martin Perkinson, also of Appleton, turned the mile in 2:16.3.

Rains Sunday night and yesterday caused a heavy track that prevented outstanding times.

Berne Union Loses Athletic Director

LANCASTER — C. W. (Jake) Van Schoyck, 27, resigned as athletic director at Berne Union High School yesterday. He will become head football coach at Fairborn High School.

At Berne Union, in nearby Sugar Grove, Van Schoyck coached basketball, football and baseball. He has been there since graduating from Wilmington College in 1950.

The Record-Herald Tuesday, May 29, 1956
Washington, D. C., Ohio

A total of 120 deer have been reported accidentally killed in Ohio during the first three months of 1956. The accidental kill for the corresponding period in 1955 was 123 deer. This is a decrease of 2.4 percent for this year.

According to the figures compiled by the game section, the accidental deer kill is at about the same level in the spring of 1956 as for the same period in 1955, despite a legal kill of about 4,200 deer and a reported accidental kill of almost 800 deer.

As has been true during the past few years, District No. 3 in northeastern Ohio has had the greatest number of accidentally killed deer (68), followed by the southeastern district with 35; central district with 13 and northwestern district with 4. No accidentally killed deer were reported in southwestern Ohio during the first quarter.

ACCORDING to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, farm ponds smaller than a half acre rarely furnish good fishing, but ponds of from one to three acres are ideal for the average family and friends. At the present time there are more than one-and-one-half million farm ponds averaging an acre in size in the United States and the number is increasing at the rate of 100,000 ponds annually.

In 24 states the laws and policies prohibit stocking of farm ponds with fish produced in the state hatcheries. As a result the Fish and Wildlife Service each year provides more than 30,000, 000 fish, mainly warm water species, for approximately 25,000 non-commercial ponds in 42 states.

During the first four and one-half months in 1956, the fish section, Ohio Division of Wildlife, has approved approximately 1,000 applications for federal fish to be stocked in newly constructed farm ponds. The federal fish hatchery at Hebron, Ohio, furnishes the fish for newly constructed farm ponds, after the application has been approved by the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

According to a recent survey, it is estimated that there are approximately 14,000 farm ponds in Ohio of which about 10,000 provide some fishing, the remainder being constructed principally as a source of immediately available water for cattle and fire protection.

Cotton Decisions
Giardello Again
NEW YORK — Charley (King) Cotton has his second straight victory over Joey Giardello.

"The breaks are finally coming my way," said the happy, 26-year-old ex-Marine from Toledo. "I don't care how close the officials call 'em as long as they have me ahead. Of course knocking 'em out makes it a whole lot easier."

The officials gave Cotton a split-decision edge over Giardello in their bruising 10-round tussle in St. Nicholas Arena last night. Cotton was an 8-5 underdog despite his close but unanimous triumph over the onetime top-ranking middleweight contender in the same arena three weeks ago.

Pirates Save Redlegs From 2nd Division

CHICAGO — The Cincinnati Redlegs are having another "sinking spell" in their hitting. It's almost identical to the one they suffered two weeks ago and if Pittsburgh hadn't beaten Brooklyn last night the Reds would have sunk right into the National League's second division.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts' supposedly potent sluggers could manage only three hits yesterday as they dropped a 4-1 decision to the Chicago Cubs.

In the last three games (all defeats) the Redlegs have scored only 4 runs on 19 hits. Two weeks ago during a similar three-game slump, the Rhinelanders scored only 3 times on 24 hits.

And it was Milwaukee's league leading Braves who started both tailspins.

Along with lack of hitting, there was another discouraging factor for Tebbetts—another failure by pitcher Joe Nuxhall who lasted only until the fifth inning and gave up all of the Cub runs.

Cincinnati's only run had come in the third on Roy McMillan's triple to right center and Nuxhall's sacrifice fly. After that the Reds didn't get another hit until McMillan singled in the eighth. The final Redleg hit was Frank Robinson's single in the ninth.

Brooks Lawrence was to be given the job today of trying to pitch the Reds out of their slump.

National Loop Far Different From Last Year

Milwaukee Replaces Brooklyn As League's Front-Running Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This, in case you hadn't noticed, is a brand new year in the National League.

A year ago, the NL went into the Memorial Day milepost strung out behind Brooklyn, with the Dodgers enjoying a six-game bulge and St. Louis and Milwaukee 11 games back. Pittsburgh, going through its regular pantomime, was 18 games to the rear and in the cellar.

That was last year. Right now Milwaukee is winning what has been a two-way scrap for the lead with St. Louis, while the Pirates are just a game back.

And where's Brooklyn? Three games back in fifth.

Milwaukee blasted the Cardinals 10-3 Monday night, thus removing a screwy predicament that had them a length short in the "games behind" column but still in first.

Pittsburgh made it cozy by nudging the Brooks 3-2 — with Bob Friend winning his eighth on a two-hitter and Dale Long hitting his eighth home run in eight games to better his major league record set Saturday.

Bob Rush's three-hitter tripped Cincinnati as the Chicago Cubs won 4-1. Philadelphia kept the road rocky for New York by beating the Giants 5-2.

In the American League, the race has the look of a romp. The New York Yankees grabbed a 4½-game lead, beating Boston 2-0 as Whitey Ford gained his seventh triumph and second shutout while the runner-up Cleveland Indians lost to Detroit 3-1. Kansas City dumped Chicago's White Sox 6-4, on a two-run homer by Enos Slaughter in the ninth, and Baltimore clipped Washington 6-5 in 10 innings.

The only hits off Friend, who has lost two, was a first-inning homer by Duke Snider and a one-out single by Junior Gilliam in the third. Carl Erskine was the loser.

Bobby Thomson and Del Crandall homered for the Braves, who had a 6-0 lead in two frames to chase Herm Wehmeier. Gene Conley, in relief of Lou Sleater, was the winner.

Harvey Haddix, with ace Robin Roberts relieving in the eighth, won his first for the Phils.

Roy McMillan got two hits off Rush, who fanned seven and walked one, and scored a run that stood up until the fifth. Then the Cubs racked Joe Nuxhall for four runs — two on a bases-loaded double by Ernie Banks.

Ford, in trouble only twice, scattered five Boston hits while the Yanks made the most of four singles off Frank Sullivan. Two in the first and an infield out by Yogi Berra, back from an eight-game stay on the injury list, scored one run. Two errors by shortstop Bob Burdick helped the other across in the fourth.

Steve Gromek six-hit the Indians while the Tigers got two runs in the fifth on Bob Kennedy's ground-rule double and a force-out to hand Herb Score his fourth defeat.

The White Sox blew a 2-0 lead as Kansas City scored four in the eighth with homers by Gus Zernial and Jim Finigan. They tied it with two in the top of the ninth. Billy Pierce went in as a reliever in the bottom of the ninth. He walked a man, and then came Slaughter.

Reliever Mike Fornieles doubled in the 10th and came home with the clincher for the Orioles on Chuck Diering's single.

A total of 120 deer have been reported accidentally killed in Ohio during the first three months of 1956. The accidental kill for the corresponding period in 1955 was 123 deer. This is a decrease of 2.4 percent for this year.

According to the figures compiled by the game section, the accidental deer kill is at about the same level in the spring of 1956 as for the same period in 1955, despite a legal kill of about 4,200 deer and a reported accidental kill of almost 800 deer.

As has been true during the past few years, District No. 3 in northeastern Ohio has had the greatest number of accidentally killed deer (68), followed by the southeastern district with 35; central district with 13 and northwestern district with 4. No accidentally killed deer were reported in southwestern Ohio during the first quarter.

According to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, farm ponds smaller than a half acre rarely furnish good fishing, but ponds of from one to three acres are ideal for the average family and friends. At the present time there are more than one-and-one-half million farm ponds averaging an acre in size in the United States and the number is increasing at the rate of 100,000 ponds annually.

In 24 states the laws and policies prohibit stocking of farm ponds with fish produced in the state hatcheries. As a result the Fish and Wildlife Service each year provides more than 30,000,000 fish, mainly warm water species, for approximately 28,000 non-commercial ponds in 42 states.

During the first four and one-half months in 1956, the fish section, Ohio Division of Wildlife, has approved approximately 1,000 applications for federal fish to be stocked in newly - constructed farm ponds. The federal fish hatchery at Hebron, Ohio, furnishes the fish for newly - constructed farm ponds, after the application has been approved by the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

According to a recent survey, it is estimated that there are approximately 14,000 farm ponds in Ohio of which about 10,000 provide some fishing, the remainder being constructed principally as a source of immediately available water for cattle and fire protection.

Cotton Decisions Giardello Again

NEW YORK (AP)—Charley (King) Cotton has his second straight victory over Joey Giardello.

"The breaks are finally coming my way," said the happy, 26-year-old ex-Marine from Toledo. "I don't care how close the officials call 'em as long as they have me ahead. Of course knocking 'em out makes it a whole lot easier."

The officials gave Cotton a split-decision edge over Giardello in their bruising 10-round tussle in St. Nicholas Arena last night. Cotton was an 8-5 underdog despite his close but unanimous triumph over the onetime top-ranking middleweight contender in the same arena three weeks ago.

Pirates Save Redlegs From 2nd Division

CHICAGO (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs are having another "sinking spell" in their hitting. It's almost identical to the one they suffered two weeks ago and if Pittsburgh hadn't beaten Brooklyn last night the Reds would have sunk right into the National League's second division.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts' supposedly potent sluggers could manage only three hits yesterday as they dropped a 4-1 decision to the Chicago Cubs.

In the last three games (all defeats) the Redlegs have scored only 4 runs on 19 hits. Two weeks ago during a similar three-game slump, the Rhinelanders scored only 3 times on 24 hits.

And it was Milwaukee's league leading Braves who started both tailspins.

Along with lack of hitting, there was another discouraging factor for Tebbetts—another failure by pitcher Joe Nuxhall who lasted only until the fifth inning and gave up all of the Cub runs.

Cincinnati's only run had come in the third on Roy McMillan's triple to right center and Nuxhall's sacrifice fly. After that the Reds didn't get another hit until McMillan singled in the eighth.

The final Redleg hit was Frank Robinson's single in the ninth.

Brooks Lawrence was to be given the job today of trying to pitch the Reds out of their slump.

DECORATION DAY MAY 30th

Let us treasure their memories

More than TWO MILLION LIVES have been lost in all of our wars. This is the price that has been paid for The United States of America... to safeguard and perpetuate our freedom and cherished institutions. Let us bear ever in mind the full meaning of the great and unselfish sacrifice these two million made for their country... and ours. And let us remember them especially on Memorial Day with affection, with pride, with gratitude and reverence.

Poppy Sale Here Brings in $442

Money Goes In Fund To Help Veterans

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary here today had added $442.64 to the fund that is used for the rehabilitation of war veterans and give help to their families.

The money came from the annual Poppy Sale on the streets here last Saturday.

Mrs. Arthur Herboltsheimer, the president of the Auxiliary, said after the final check on the sale had been completed that more than 3,000 of the 5,000 poppies the Auxiliary here bought for the sale had been put out during the sale.

She explained that the sale was somewhat in the nature of a contribution because there was no set price; rather, she explained, the buyers, or contributors, merely dropped what they felt they could afford into a coin can carried by each of the Auxiliary members.

Mrs. Herboltsheimer said "so many people asked us what the money was for when they got their poppies" that she went over briefly the program:

THE POPPIES are made by disabled veterans in hospitals; they are then bought by the Legion at a fixed price and the veterans get to keep the money; if they are not all sold, the veterans have their money for them anyway; the money from the sale goes to help veterans and their families in need.

One of the projects of the Auxiliary here, Mrs. Herboltsheimer said, is to make life a little brighter for the veterans in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Chillicothe. The Auxiliary has a regular schedule of at least one visit a month to the hospital to visit with the patients. Cookies, candy and the like are taken there periodically, too, she added.

The sale here Saturday was carried on largely by 25 women of the Auxiliary, five boys and five girls.

Mrs. Albert Hyer, she said, was the top saleswoman with $57.11 turned in. Close behind was Mrs. Heber Roe, who turned in $52.87.

Mrs. Herboltsheimer and Mrs. Joe Louden were the co-chairmen of the Poppy Sale this year.

Charles H. Penwell Dies In Hospital

Charles Henry Penwell, 89, who died at 2:55 P. M. Monday in Memorial Hospital, leaves 33 grandchildren and 43 great-grandchildren.

He had been ill for the last two years and in the hospital for the last week.

A native of Ross County, he came to Washington C. H. from Bainbridge two years ago. He was a member of the Pine Ridge Church of Christ in Christian Union in Pike County.

He is survived by his widow; a son, Elmer Penwell, 908 John Street; and four daughters, Muta Morris, 616 Delaware Street, Mrs. Ethel Downard, 647 Harrison Street, Mrs. Tassie Bobo of Mt. Sterling and Mrs. Fannie McCoy of Chillicothe.

Funeral services, in charge of the Gerstner Funeral Home, are to be held at the Penwell residence, 509 John Street, at 2 P. M. Thursday. Interment is to be in the Bainbridge Cemetery.

Friends may call at the residence after 7 P. M. today.

There are 2,000 telephones aboard the U. S. aircraft carrier Saratoga.

Final Tributes Paid To Charles Briggs

Funeral services for Charles Briggs were conducted at 2 P. M. Monday at the Alvin G. Little Funeral Home in Jeffersonville by Rev. R. L. Wright, pastor of the Jeffersonville Church of Christ.

The minister offered prayer, read the Scripture and delivered the funeral sermon. Miss Frances and Miss Myrna Creamer sang the two hymns, "Beyond the Sunset," and "Good Night and Good Morning."

Mrs. Opal Harrison played the piano accompaniment. The pallbearers, who also cared for the flowers, were Herman Glass, Forrest Moore, Lester Cook, Collins Cook, Frank Kimley and Kenneth Hart.

Interment was in the Fairview Cemetery at Jeffersonville.

Albert F. Strueve Final Rites Held

Funeral services for Albert F. Strueve, a Greenfield funeral director, were held at the Strueve Funeral Home in Greenfield Monday at 2 P. M. Rev. Clair S. Emrick of the First Presbyterian Church in Greenfield officiated, with the assistance of Rev. C. L. Thomas of Circleville.

Rev. Emrick read from the Scriptures, offered prayer, read the 23rd Psalm, read the poem "If You Go First," and delivered a sermon.

Mrs. T. J. Hike sang "Beautiful Isle," and "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bonnie McCullough.

Rev. Thomas, who was Mr. Strueve's uncle, offered prayer and paid a brief personal tribute to the deceased.

Pallbearers, who cared for the many floral tributes, were John Wertz, Charles Uhl, Harold Riley, Paul Fairley, E. W. Kerns and Maple Iseman. Burial was in the Greenfield Cemetery.

The services were under the direction of the Parrett Funeral Home of Washington C. H. and the Turner and Miller Funeral Home of Hillsboro.

10 BPW Members Back from Meeting

The ten members of the Washington C. H. Business and Professional Women's Club who attended the annual meeting of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women in Toledo today were back home at their own businesses and professions and summarizing their convention notes from which they will report to the next meeting of the club. Most of the sessions of the three-day meeting were held in the Commodore Perry Hotel.

At the meeting were Mrs. Smith Mace, president, Miss Mary Frances Snider, Mrs. Frank Hyer, Mrs. Otto Fent, Miss Norma Dodd, Miss Frances White, Mrs. Pauline Sprague, Mrs. Edythe Craig, Mrs. M. J. Whitfield and Miss Edith Wilson.

Speakers for the convention were Hon. Frances P. Bolton, congressman from Ohio's 22nd District and Gov. Frank L. Lausche, who participated in the symposium on Saturday.

The club also received a citation for the Scrapbook compiled with news of the club activities during the past fiscal year. This book was assembled by the News Service Committee with Mrs. Fred Shoop, as chairman. Other members are Miss Norma Flee, Mrs. Mary Gillespie, Mrs. Wilbur Morgan, Miss Mildred Moss, Mrs. Leila Smith, Miss Lena Smith, Miss Kathleen Stookey, Mrs. Madonna Kimmy and Mrs. Walter Parrett.

10 BPW Members Back from Meeting

The ten members of the Washington C. H. Business and Professional Women's Club who attended the annual meeting of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women in Toledo today were back home at their own businesses and professions and summarizing their convention notes from which they will report to the next meeting of the club. Most of the sessions of the three-day meeting were held in the Commodore Perry Hotel.

At the meeting were Mrs. Smith Mace, president, Miss Mary Frances Snider, Mrs. Frank Hyer, Mrs. Otto Fent, Miss Norma Dodd, Miss Frances White, Mrs. Pauline Spragg, Mrs. Edythe Craig, Mrs. M. J. Whitfield and Miss Edith Wilson.

Speakers for the convention were Hon. Frances P. Bolton, congressman from Ohio's 22nd District and Gov. Frank L. Lausche, who participated in the symposium on Saturday.

The club also received a citation for the Scrapbook compiled with news of the club activities during the past fiscal year. This book was assembled by the News Service Committee with Mrs. Fred Shoop, as chairman. Other members are Miss Norma Flee, Mrs. Mary Gillespie, Mrs. Wilbur Morgan, Miss Mildred Moss, Mrs. Leila Smith, Miss Lena Smith, Miss Kathleen Stookey, Mrs. Madonna Kimmy and Mrs. Walter Parrett.

In Korea. Didn't even have time to hate anybody. Five minutes after we started up the first hill a mortar hit at my feet and—aw, who cares now? Where's Edith. She was only 18 when she promised she'd always. Couldn't she come just this once?

Charley: Never mind, son. You'll get used to it. Anyway, maybe she misses you in ways you don't even know.

Frank: But Edith was the only girl I really ever knew, the only one I ever had a chance to know.
